

STOP BEFORE YOU CRASH

at the Dangerous Intersection of Workers' Compensation and Employment Law
Educational Seminar

March 22, 2017

8:45 am – 4:00 pm

Huntington Club | Spartan Stadium

Foster Swift Collins & Smith PC

invites you to

STOP BEFORE YOU CRASH AT THE INTERSECTION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYMENT LAW

Designed to help Workers' Compensation claims adjusters and HR directors effectively address Workers' Compensation claims and related employment issues, this one-day seminar shares the perspectives of Administrative Law Judges, Workers' Compensation Magistrates, commissioners, directors and attorneys on how to navigate the ever-growing overlap between Workers' Compensation and Employment Law.

Date: March 22, 2017

8:45 am - 9:00 am Registration

9:00 am - 4:00 pm Seminar

Fee: Free

Dress: Business casual

Location: Huntington Club

MSU Spartan Stadium, East Lansing

Parking: Vouchers provided

Meals: Continental breakfast and lunch provided

Program: The morning sessions will focus on representatives from five agencies discussing common errors and key considerations claims adjusters and HR representatives must assess when handling Workers' Compensation claims and the overlapping employment issues. Speakers include:

Christopher Ambrose

Administrative Law Judge, Office of Disability Adjudication and Review

Lisa Klaeren

Chairperson, Workers' Compensation
Board of Magistrates

Mark Long

Director, Michigan Workers'
Compensation Agency

Lolita Davis

Enforcement Supervisor
Outreach and Training
US EEOC

George Wyatt III

Commissioner, Michigan Compensation
Appellate Commission

IMPORTANT: The afternoon session will be a fast-paced interactive event focused on Workers' Compensation "hot issues" with overlapping employment law implications. We want to know your questions so we can address them in this session. Please email us your top three questions and concerns to: cwhite@fosterswift.com

Please join us for the networking reception after the seminar from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm.